

been very careful not to antagonize the people. It is a question of power, the people versus the courts. Ultimately the people must triumph.

Cochran's fight for freedom of speech and press is a notable one and has the support of every liberty-loving man and woman throughout the United States. The revolution is in progress and marching along is—William Greene.

PRAYERS—CIVILIZATION

Editor Day Book:—All thinkers agree that present conditions have no real foundation, and being constructed upon sand instead of on a sound basis of true equality or holiness (oneness or brotherhood) cannot last. For the few to "corner" all the products and resources of the earth, then allow nine-tenths to go to waste, making a supply quite inadequate to the demand, explains the destructive system of economics now enslaving mankind. Equal rights are not, therefore, possible.

Justice will not, cannot, permit of a contamination of this state—combat and shedding of blood results. The pendulum has swung too far. The civilization of today is not civilization at all. It is nothing but a hollow mask.

How rarely can true Christianity be discerned in the motives of life. Only here and there can be found the individual bearing and uplifting the cross. Yet on him depends the new earth. How can it be brought about?

For answer we must search the scriptures. Though the voice has spoken it, Ainyahita tells it fully. So much so that the world will not, dare not, believe such ways and means possible. They say "There is a God. Those who believe in Him, say He is a God of love, so He cannot use such weapons of destruction in order to redeem." Don't let this doctrine carry weight. God could not be a God of Love, if He were not a God of Justice. He has given to all mankind free will, free laws and free warnings. Those who will not heed and conform must pay the penalty, dragging others with them. They cannot blame HIM, for they know that the "Wages of sin are death" and "As ye sow, so shall ye reap. No other way is lawful or possible to the Lord God, but to allow the conditions, made by man, full sway, no interfering, no meddling. The law-breakers will be judged by the law; but the JUST need not be afraid (man's laws need to be enforced, God's laws are always in force). In the "Message of Peace" lies safety and redemption: For to him that overcometh shall be given life everlasting.

EXTEND THE AUTOMATIC

Editor Day Book:—Would suggest that the secretaries of all improvement clubs in the city be instructed to write their respective aldermen to use their influence to have the Automatic Telephone Co. extend their service into outlying territory.

These letters should be written in such a way that the alderman could not fail to understand that their constituents were getting tired of promises before election and then entirely ignored afterwards.—John Bruns, 2027 W. 67th St.

HOLY IN FRONT

Dr. Parkhurst at a dinner in New York, said of Sabbath observance:

"There are too many of us who are like the Hempstead woman.

"This woman said to her little boy the other day:

"You mustn't roll your hoop in the front garden, dear. It's Sunday. Go roll it in the back garden."

"Isn't it Sunday in the back garden, too, mamma?" the little boy asked.
